

The Fifth D.R.A.F. T.

(Dermatology Resident and Faculty Tasting)

October 1st, 2008

Paul K. Shitabata, M.D.

Dermatopathology Institute

酒

Sake

It's a Beer!

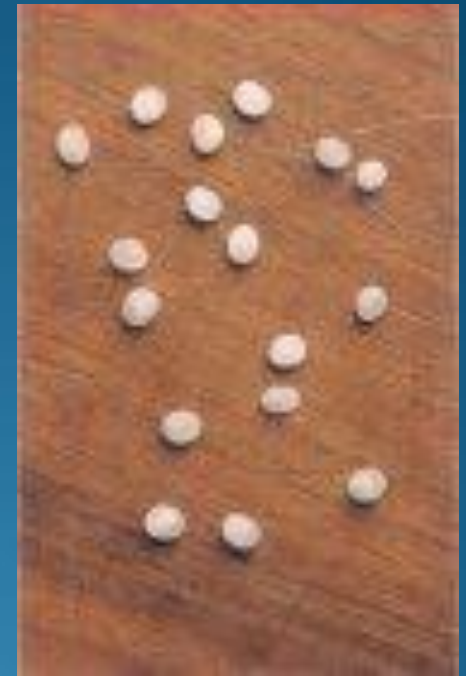

Unmilled

45% milled
Ginjo grade

55% milled
Dai-Ginjo grade

Categories

- Junmai-shu (At least 30% milled)
- Honjozo-shu* (30%)
- Ginjo-shu (At least 40%)
- Daiginjo-shu (At least 50%)
- Junmai-Ginjo-shu (Ginjo shu with no added alcohol)
- Junmai-Daiginjo-shu (Daiginjo-shu with no added alcohol)
- Namazake (unfiltered)

*Some added distilled alcohol

?

Junmai-Ozeki Sake Dry

- Ozeki is large mass-produced brewery
- 14% abv

Ginjo-Ozeki Sake Ginjo Premier

- Ozeki brewery
- “Higher end” brew
- Abv 15%

Junmai Ginjo-

“Kanbara Bride of the Fox”

- Kanbara-Niigata prefecture
- Abv 16.5%
- Complex nutty and fruity
- Celebrates the paper lanterns of the fox bride

Junmai Ginjo- “Rihaku Wandering Poet”

- Smaller brewery from Shimane prefecture
- “He drinks a big bottle of sake and writes a hundred poems” (said of Chinese poet Li Po)
- Combination of Ginjo, Daiginjo, and Honjozo
- 15.2 abv

Junmai-Daiginjo “Hakutsuru Sho-Une”

- Kobe brewery
- Abv 15.5%

Namazake

- Unpasteurized
- All grades may fall into this category
- Serve cold

OZEKI
SAKE
DRY

李白
Rihaku
DREAMY CLOUDS

李白
WANDERING
POET

KANBARA
Bride of the Fox
Junmai GINJO Sake
蒲原

OZEKI SAKI
GINJO PREMIER

翔雲
SHIO-UNE
Junmai Dai GINJO

酒

The Fifth D.R.A.F. T

(Dermatology Resident and Faculty Tasting)

October 1, 2008