What is the best diagnosis?

A. Erythema induratum
B. Erythema elevatum diutinum
C. Erythema multiforme
D. Erythema gyratum repens
E. Erythema nodosum
Erythema nodosum
Pearls

- Predominately septal panniculitis
- No vasculitis
- Scattered giant cells
- Acute cases may mimic infectious process, requiring special stains to rule out infection
- Overlap with some cases of Behcet’s syndrome