What is the best diagnosis?

A. Erythema chronicum migrans
B. Lepromatous leprosy
C. Eruptive xanthoma
D. Scleromyxedema
E. Herpes Zoster virus infection
Lepromatous Leprosy
Pearls

- Look for perineural lymphocytic infiltrate
- Variable inflammatory response depending upon immune status of patient
- Scattered histiocytes and neutrophils
- Always get Fite stain to confirm.